

Bon Voyage Parties For Mrs. Quigley

Mrs. D. W. Quigley left by plane last Saturday morning for Spain to join her husband who is a civilian at the Naval installation there.

On Thursday, Mrs. Quigley was given a farewell luncheon by a group of intimate friends. The affair was held at the Fish Shanty and the honor guest was presented with a gift from the group.

Attending the party were Meses. John Thuss, Charles A. Curtis, Dean Sears, Edna Mullin, Thomas J. McCutcheon, Paul F. Vonderahe of Torrance and Mrs. Douglas Collins of Redondo Beach.

Recently Mrs. Quigley was complimented at a bon voyage dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Vonderahe at their home, 1452 Engracia Ave.

A floral centerpiece on the table was flanked by lighted tapers. The bon voyage theme was used in other decorations and in the napkins.

Mrs. Quigley was given a farewell gift from the guests. After dinner, the couples, who have been friends for many years, enjoyed colored slides of events occurring during their long friendships.

With Mr. and Mrs. Vonderahe and Mrs. Quigley for the dinner party were Messrs. and Meses. Charles Curtis, Roland F. Sanderhoff, Ralph E. Satchell of Torrance; and Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Dolley of Gardena, formerly of Torrance.
